VICTOR[x]

Notes: [a] Not available.

[b] Inserted by translator.

[c] Inserted by translator. Apparently "Studies" was omitted by mistake.

Comments: [i] BANK : U.S. State Department.

[ii] GYMNASTIC Organization: Possibly a Young Communist League organization.

[iii] ZORA : Flora Don WOVSEHIN.

[iv] IZBA : O.S.S.

[v] BLERIOT : Possibly Stanislav SHUMOVIKIJ.

[vi] DUVIER : Unidentified cover-name.

[vii] VADIM : Anatolij Borisovich GROMOV, First Secretary at the Soviet Embassy in WASHINGTON.

[viii] ROBERT : If "NEIGHBOURS" is right it seems unlikely that this is Nathan Gregory SILVERMASTER who had been known under this cover-name since July 1944. There is an unidentified "ROBERT" in an unpublished NEW YORK-MOSCOW message No.833 of 10th June 1942, although this should have been changed before the name was allocated to SILVERMASTER. Alternatively this may be a mistake on MOSCOW's part.

[x] VICTOR : Lt. Gen. P. M. FITIN.
